NOTICE OF PUBLICATION

This is a Complaint requesting a divorce, alleging that the marriage is irretrievably broken and the parties have lived separate and apart since 2004. An Affidavit of these allegations, required by Section 3301(d) of the Divorce Code has been filed with the Prothonotary's Office.

You have been sued in Court. If you wish to defend against the claim set forth in the following pages, you must take prompt action. You are warned that if you fail to do so, the case may proceed without you and a Decree of Divorce or Annulment may be entered against you by the Court. A judgment may also be entered against you for any other claim or relief requested in these papers by the Plaintiff. You may lose money or property or rights important to you, including custody or visitation of your children.

When the ground for Divorce is indignities or irretrievable breakdown of the marriage, you may request marriage counseling. A list of marriage counselors is available in the Office of the Prothonotary at the following address:
