Notice Of Intention To Request Entry Of § 3301 (d) Divorce Decree

To: Jason A. Mooney

You have been sued in court in an action for divorce. You have failed to answer the complaint or file a counter-affidavit to the § 3301 (d) affidavit. Therefore, on or after March 3, 2021, the other party can request the court to enter a final decree in divorce.

If you do not file with the Clerk of Judicial Records – Civil Division an answer with your signature notarized or verified or a counter-affidavit by the above-date, the court can enter a final decree in divorce.

Unless you have already filed with the court a written claim for economic relief, you must do so by the above date or the court may grant the divorce and you will lose forever the right to ask for economic relief. The filing of the form counter-affidavit alone does not protect your economic claims.

You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer, go to or telephone the office set forth below. This office can provide you with information about hiring a lawyer. If you cannot afford to hire a lawyer, this office may be able to provide you with information about agencies that may offer legal services to eligible persons at a reduced fee or no fee.
