Recusal

1. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania established a continuing judicial education (CJE) program, requiring twelve hours of CJE annually, four of which must be through courses offered by the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts’ (AOPC) Judicial Education Department.
2. Judges are mandated by the rules set forth in Pennsylvania’s Code of Judicial Conduct to act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary, and shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety.
3. Judges are prohibited from permitting others to convey the impression that any person or organization is in a position to influence the judge.
4. Judges are obligated to hear and decide matters assigned to the judge, except where the judge has recused himself or when disqualification is required by rule or law.
5. A judge shall disqualify himself in any proceeding in which the judge’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned.
6. Recusal is the act of removing or absenting oneself in a particular case because the judge concludes that the prevailing facts or circumstances could engender a substantial question in reasonable minds whether the judge can be impartial.
7. A judge may recuse himself or herself from presiding over a matter even in the absence of a disqualifying fact or circumstance where, in the exercise of discretion, in good faith, and with due consideration for the general duty to hear and decide matters, the judge concludes that prevailing facts and circumstances could engender a substantial question in reasonable minds as to whether disqualification nonetheless should be required.
8. A judge must decide whether his continued involvement in a case creates an appearance of impropriety and/or would tend to undermine public confidence in the judiciary. This is a personal and unreviewable decision that only the jurist can make.
9. Thomas R. Kline, Esquire, is counsel for the plaintiff in this matter. Mr. Kline established the Kline Center for Judicial Education with a donation of $7,500,000. The Kline Center holds itself out as being in partnership with the AOPC Judicial Education Department, providing administrative assistance and organizational support in CJE courses throughout Pennsylvania. Mr. Kline’s firm currently promotes his funding of and relationship to the Kline Center on its website. Articles in the press have done the same. This judge is mandated to obtain at least four credit hours each year by attending CJE classes prepared in conjunction with and/or facilitated by Mr. Kline’s Center. This judge is concerned that all of the publicly available information regarding the funding of the Kline Center and its holding itself out as having a partnership with AOPC may undermine public confidence in those, like the undersigned, who are mandated to participate in programs planned, facilitated, or provided by the Kline Center as it would also not be unreasonable for opposing parties and their counsel to be left with the impression that they are at some disadvantage under these circumstances. In good conscience, this judge must sua sponte recuse himself from hearing this matter and orders Court Administration to reassign this case to the next available judge. This judge has no quarrel with other jurists who may take a different position.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
CHESTER COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

NO. 2021-07592-PL

CIVIL ACTION

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This matter was initiated by the filing of a Writ of Summons on September 27, 2021. The case was reassigned to the undersigned, on August 14, 2023. For the reasons that follow, the undersigned sua sponte recuses himself from hearing this matter.

Background

By Order dated December 9, 2016, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania established a continuing judicial education program. See In re: Pennsylvania Continuing Judicial Education, No. 719 Supreme Court Rules Docket (Dec. 9, 2016). Judges are required to earn three credit hours in judicial ethics and nine credit hours in judicial practice and related areas per year. Id. at sec.4(a). The Court mandated that four of the annual credit hours be earned through courses offered by the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts’ Judicial Education Department. Id. at sec. 4(b)(ii). The Court’s Order is now embodied in the Pennsylvania’s Rules for Continuing Judicial Education. Pa.C.J.E. Rule 101, et seq. The credit hour requirement remains the same. Pa.C.J.E. Rule 301(a) and 302(a).

Thomas R. Kline, Esquire, is counsel for the plaintiff in this matter. According to current information available to the public on the internet, in 2017 Mr. Kline established the Kline Center for Judicial Education at Duquesne University School of Law (Kline Center), with a donation of $7,500,000.00. See HOMEPAGE OF THOMAS R. KLINE CENTER FOR JUDICIAL EDUCATION (Homepage), <https://www.duq.edu/academics/colleges-and-schools/law/thomas-r-kline-center-for-judicial-education/index.php>. The Kline Center holds itself out as being “[i]n partnership with the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts' (AOPC) Judicial Education Department,” and providing “administrative assistance and organizational support in the development and delivery of continuing judicial education courses throughout Pennsylvania.” Id. There are numerous pictures of Mr. Kline on the website. Id. There are eight other law schools involved in providing continuing judicial education credits, including for example, the University of Pennsylvania, which holds itself out as having “a vigorous partnership with the Administrative Office of Pennsylvania Courts (AOPC) Judicial Education Department.” See PENN CAREY LAW NEWS AND EVENTS WEBPAGE (Webpage), <https://www.law.upenn.edu/live/news/14722-continuing-judicial-education>.

Mr. Kline’s firm currently promotes his funding of and relationship to the Kline Center on its publicly available website. See KLINE & SPECTER PC WEBSITE, <https://www.klinespecter.com/thomas-r-kline-center-for-judicial-education.html>. There are also publicly available press articles regarding monetary contributions to the Kline Center. See Linda Loyd, Philadelphia lawyer gives $7.5 million for continuing education classes for Pa. judges, THE PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER, July 25, 2017; Stephanie Francis Ward, Plaintiffs lawyer donates $7.5M to Duquesne Law for judicial education, ABA JOURNAL, July 26, 2017, https://www.abajournal.com/news/article/plaintiff\_lawyer\_gives\_duquesne\_law\_7.5m\_for\_judicial\_education.

The undersigned enthusiastically supports and enjoys the benefits of continuing judicial education. However, the undersigned is mandated to obtain at least four credit hours each year by attending continuing judicial education classes offered by AOPC, which are prepared in conjunction with and/or facilitated by, inter alia, Mr. Kline’s Center for Judicial Education.

Discussion

Judges are mandated by the rules set forth in Pennsylvania’s Code of Judicial Conduct (Rule), to “act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the independence, integrity, and impartiality of the judiciary, and shall avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety.” Rule 1.2 (emphasis added). In addition to the general directive that judges promote confidence in the judiciary and avoid even the appearance of impropriety, they are also prohibited from permitting “others to convey the impression that any person or organization is in a position to influence the judge.” Rule 2.4(C).

Judges are further obligated to “hear and decide matters assigned to the judge, except where the judge has recused himself or herself or when disqualification is required by Rule 2.11 or other law.” Rule 2.11(A) states, in pertinent part, that “[a] judge shall disqualify himself or herself in any proceeding in which the judge’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned.” The comment to the Rule makes clear that “a judge is disqualified whenever the judge’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned, regardless of whether any of the specific provisions of paragraphs (A)(1) through (6) apply.” Rule 2.11 cmt. [1].

Recusal “is the act of removing or absenting oneself in a particular case because the judge concludes that the prevailing facts or circumstances could engender a substantial question in reasonable minds whether the judge can be impartial.” Disqualification and Recusal, PCSTJ Judicial Ethics Comm. Formal Advisory Op. 2015-4 (emphasis added). The comments addressing recusal state that, a judge may recuse himself or herself from presiding over a matter even in the absence of a disqualifying fact or circumstance where -- in the exercise of discretion, in good faith, and with due consideration for the general duty to hear and decide matters -- the judge concludes that prevailing facts and circumstances could engender a substantial question in reasonable minds as to whether disqualification nonetheless should be required.

Rule 2.7 cmt. [2].

As a judge, the undersigned must decide whether his “continued involvement in the case creates an appearance of impropriety and/or would tend to undermine public confidence in the judiciary. This is a personal and unreviewable decision that only the jurist can make.” Lomas v. Kravitz, 130 A.3d 107, 122 (Pa.Super. 2015) (citation omitted) (finding that full bench recusal was not required). In this regard, the undersigned is concerned that all of the publicly available information regarding the funding of the Kline Center and its holding itself out as having a partnership with AOPC may undermine public confidence in those, like the undersigned, who are mandated to participate in programs planned, facilitated, or provided by the Kline Center. It would also not be unreasonable for opposing parties and their counsel to be left with the impression that they are at some disadvantage under these circumstances. This is my individual view and there is no quarrel with other jurists who may take a different position. However, under these circumstances, and in good conscience, the undersigned must recuse himself from hearing this matter.

After consideration of the foregoing, and for all of the reasons stated, we enter this

ORDER

AND NOW, this 22nd day of September, 2023, I have recused myself from this matter and Court Administration is directed to make a reassignment to the next available judge.

BY THE COURT:

/s/ Anthony T. Verwey, J.
