

RECENT OPINION SUMMARIES

PUCCIARELLI v. DEMETER
F.C. 11-90554-D (2014)

In general, property given to both husband and wife as a wedding gift is part of the marital estate. However, if that gift was expended entirely on wedding/honeymoon expenses before the parties separated it is not available for equitable distribution.

HOUSEHOLD FINANCE CONSUMER DISCOUNT COMPANY v. GRAMZ
A.D. 10-11586 (2014)

The formation of a Mortgage Reaffirmation Agreement must comply with the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, a Reaffirmation Agreement must be formed in accordance with the procedures mandated by the Code in 11 U.S.C. § 524(c). It is critical that the Reaffirmation Agreement be filed with the Bankruptcy Court. In a Chapter 7 bankruptcy, a discharge of a debtor's personal liability in connection with a mortgage does not adversely affect the bank's mortgage lien against the debtor's personal residence.

FERGUSON v. CLAYPOOLE
A.D. 11-11492 (2014)

The mere happening of an accident does not establish negligence, raise an inference or presumption of negligence, or make out a prima facie case of negligence. Thus, in the absence of proof, the mere happening of an accident will not permit a case to be submitted to a jury on the doctrine of res ipsa loquitur. With respect to unexplained fires, at least one Pennsylvania court has noted that it is common knowledge that fires occur frequently without anyone being at fault, and that the rule of res ipsa loquitur is generally given limited application in such cases.
