NOTICE

The Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County (11th Judicial District) is accepting registrations for attorneys who wish to serve as arbitrators.

In order to be considered for appointment to the Board of Arbitrators, an attorney must: (1) be admitted to practice within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and be in good standing before the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania; (2) be actively engaged in the practice of law within Luzerne County; (3) maintain an office in Luzerne County; and (4) file the required Arbitrator Registration Form with the Office of Court Administration. (Luz. Co. R.C.P. No. 1303.) The attorney submitting the form will be added to a list of those eligible to serve as a member of an arbitration board. Boards of Arbitration will be appointed from the list of members of the bar who have filed such information. Each arbitrator shall receive a fee of $200.00 as compensation for each half day of hearing required.

Interested attorneys should complete the attached “Registration to Serve As Arbitrator” form, which could also be found in the Luzerne County Local Rules of Civil Procedure Appendix, Form 10; and mail said form to Carla Bradley, Arbitration Coordinator, Office of Court Administration, 200 North River Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18711, or e-mail a PDF copy to:
Carla.Bradley@luzernecounty.org.

REGISTRATION TO SERVE AS ARBITRATOR

By completing and filing this Arbitrator's Registration form with the Office of Court Administration, I hereby certify my eligibility and request that I be placed upon the list of attorneys for appointment to a Board of Arbitrators. I certify that I am familiar with the Rules of Procedure governing Arbitration and Boards of Arbitrators and will at all times act in compliance with those rules.

The following information is submitted:

Name: _____
Atty. I.D. No: _____
Address: _____
Telephone: _____
Facsimile: _____
Email: _____

I further hereby certify as follows:

1. I am admitted to the practice of law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and am currently on active status with the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania;
2. I am actively engaged in the practice of law in Luzerne County and maintain a professional office within Luzerne County.
3. I maintain a solo legal practice, or maintain the following association with other attorneys:

I verify that the foregoing statements are true and correct

MEDITATION:

Sheila L. Saidman, Esq.
Past President of the Wilkes-Barre Law & Library Association.

LAWYER'S PRAYER:

Hon. Joseph M. Augello,
Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County.

*The Red Mass dates back to thirteenth century Europe and England when judges and lawyers attended Mass at the opening of each court term to ask
God to bless their efforts to administer justice.
It received its name historically from the red vestments and robes worn by participating priests and jurists.
In the United States the Red Mass has been traditionally celebrated on the First Monday of October to coincide with the start of the new term of the United States Supreme Court.*

A buffet-style luncheon reception will immediately follow in the Sheehy-Farmer Student Center.

PLEASE CALL GAIL AT (570) 822-6712
or e-mail her at Gail.Kopiak@luzernecounty.org

Program Description

This Continuing Education Program is presented by the Wilkes-Barre Law and Library Association, the Luzerne County Medical Society, and Wilkes University. It is sponsored by the Association’s Medical-Legal/Disabilities Committee, Chaired by Jacqueline A. Zabresky, JD, RN and is being sponsored with the Luzerne Medical Society as a joint Continuing Legal Education course for lawyers and a Continuing Medical Education course for doctors. The event will also be open to members of the public.

The program will feature a panel consisting of three medical and three legal panelists. On the medical side, the panelists are Dr. Thomas S. Franko, Assistant Professor in the Pharmacy Practice program at Wilkes University; Dr. David Withers, Associate Medical Director at Marworth Treatment Center, and Dr. Christopher Connor, a Pain Management Specialist. On the legal side, the panelists are the Hon. Joseph F. Sklarosky, Jr. of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County/Judge of the County's Drug Court; Samuel M. Sanguedolce, First Assistant District Attorney of Luzerne County, and William Davis of the Northeastern Office of the DEA (Drug Enforcement Agency). The program will be moderated by Mark Hiller of WBRE TV and will be broadcasted on that station.

The course is designed to provide information for the lawyer, doctor and layperson on the use and abuse of opioids in Luzerne County with legal/medical issues being explored, including involvement by the Drug Court of Luzerne County and treatment options for abusers. For those attorneys staying for the full duration of the program, this CLE program offers and is approved by the CLE Board for two hours of substantive continuing legal education credit.

It is FREE for members of the Wilkes-Barre Law & Library Association. For Non-Members the cost is $65.00. For lawyers staying for the entire program, it provides two (2) hours of substantive CLE credit.

Location and Time:
