In re: Petition to Amend Marriage Record

Petition to Amend Marriage Record

1. He who seeks equity must come with clean hands.
2. An application for the issuance of a marriage license is a public record by which the applicants verify information required to make certain there is no legal objection to the marriage.
3. Petitioner wishes to obtain dual Irish citizenship and, to prove his lineage, petitioned this Court to alter the record of the marriage of his deceased grandparents, averring his grandfather was born in Ireland, not Philadelphia, and his grandmother's first name is misspelled.
4. Petitioner averred that he is entitled to relief pursuant to Section 711(19) of the Probate, Estates and Fiduciaries Code and Section 450.703 of the Vital Statistics Law of 1953. The former section merely establishes Petitioner correctly filed his Petition in Orphans' Court since that statute provides jurisdiction of the court of common pleas over marriage licenses shall be exercised through its orphans' court division. The latter section is unavailing since it pertains to the correction of records kept within the purview of the State Department of Health and references regulations, but there do not appear to be any regulations that apply to the current Petition. As a consequence, this Court believes that the Petition is governed by general principles of equity and this Court's discretionary exercise of its inherent powers to correct its records.
5. This Court can presume that Petitioner seeks relief in good faith but that does not mean he should be successful. Petitioner does not challenge the official record as inaccurately reflecting the birthplace and spelling supplied and affirmed by his grandparents. Instead, Petitioner avers that other official documents he attached to his Petition reflect different information and Petitioner asks this Court to alter historical records so that documents proving Petitioner's lineage are harmonized so as to reflect the historical record as accurately as possible. This Court noted Petitioner has no right to harmonized historical documents any more than he has the right to alteration of someone else's marriage record. The record will be left in its present status, to be considered with other evidence in any proceeding to prove Petitioner's lineage. This Court Held the Petition to Amend Marriage Record was denied.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF CHESTER COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
ORPHANS' COURT DIVISION

No. 038420 of 1938

In re: Petition to Amend Marriage Record filed May 31, 2023

ORDER and MEMORANDUM

AND NOW, this 18th day of September, 2023, upon consideration of the Petition to Amend Marriage Record filed May 31, 2023, for the reasons set forth in the accompanying Memorandum it is hereby ORDERED that the Petition is DENIED.

BY THE COURT:/s/ BRET M. BINDER, J.

MEMORANDUM

Presently before the court is the Petition to Amend Marriage Record filed by Nathan Wade on May 31, 2023.¹ Petitioner wishes to obtain dual Irish citizenship and to prove his lineage asks this court to alter the record of the marriage of Peter Wade and Catherine McCloskey, who are Petitioner's deceased grandparents.

More specifically, Petitioner avers as follows:

There are two errors that need to be corrected on the marriage license. The first error is the birthplace of Peter Wade. The application says he was born in Philadelphia. In actuality he was born in Ireland and had an Irish birth certificate. The second error is the spelling of "Catherine" McCloskey. The way her name is correctly spelled on her P[ennsylvania] birth certificate is Kathryn G. McCloskey.

Petition, 5/31/2023, ¶ 2 (capitalization omitted).

In support of his request, Petitioner attached to the Petition a copy of: (1) Peter Wade and Catherine McCloskey's Application for Marriage License dated October 22, 1938; (2) the marriage license issued October 28, 1938; (3) the return of marriage dated October 28, 1938 and filed October 31, 1938; and (4) the Certification of Marriage Record dated March 15, 2023 that Petitioner obtained from the Chester County Clerk of the Orphans' Court which certifies that Peter Wade and Catherine McCloskey were married in Chester County, Pennsylvania on October 28, 1938. Petitioner also attached a copy of: (1) Peter Wade's Irish Birth Certificate; (2) Peter Wade's Pennsylvania Certificate of Death; (3) Kathryn G. McCloskey's Pennsylvania Certification of Birth; and (4) Kathryn E. [sic] Wade's Pennsylvania Certificate of Death.

Petitioner averred that he is entitled to relief pursuant to "Section 711(19) of the Probate, Estates and Fiduciaries Code and Section 450.703 of the Vital Statistics Law of 1953[.]" Petition, 5/31/2023, p. 1 (introductory paragraph). See also Petition, 5/31/2023, p. 1 (wherefore clause).

This court has not seen such a Petition before and this court's own research has found no statute that controls the Petition to Amend Marriage Record. Petitioner's citation to 20 Pa.C.S. § 711(19) establishes only that Petitioner correctly filed his Petition to Orphans' Court since that statute provides that "the jurisdiction of the court of common pleas over [marriage licenses] shall be exercised through its orphans' court division." Petitioner's citation to 35 P.S. § 450.703 is unavailing since it pertains to the correction of records kept within the purview of the State Department of Health.²

¹ The Petition is not affixed with the notice to plead required by Pa.R.O.C.P. 3.5(b)(1), nor is it accompanied by a certificate of service.

² The statute provides that "[t]he acceptance of an application to correct an alleged error in any certificate or record filed with a local registrar or with the department under this act shall be subject to such regulations as the Advisory Health Board may deem necessary and proper to preserve the integrity of vital statistics records." Even if § 450.703 were to apply, Petitioner has not supplied this court with any regulation that would guide this court's disposition of the Petition and this court's own research has found none.

As a consequence, this court believes that the Petition is governed by general principles of equity and this court's discretionary exercise of its inherent powers to correct its records. In In re Green, 4 Pa. D. & C.2d 541 (Allegheny Co. 1955) the petitioner asked the court to delete the return of his marriage to Membra Moore on the ground he and she had fraudulently obtained the marriage license and fraudulently completed the marriage return. The court dismissed the petition ruling that "[t]he evidentiary value of the record should not be destroyed on the petition of the wrongdoer [and i]t should be left in its present status, to be considered with other evidence in connection with any proceeding wherein the relationship of the petitioner and Membra Moore Green is to be determined." 4 Pa. D. & C.2d at 544 (citing York Ice Machinery Corp., Appellant, v. Kearney, 344 Pa. 659, 664 (1942)). In Dohl and Neilsen Marriage License, 7 Pa. D. & C.2d 312 (Erie Co. 1957) the court "refused to exercise its equitable powers to correct the false marriage license record created by petitioners' intentional misstatements given in the application for marriage license." Dohl, 7 Pa. D. & C.2d at 312-13. This was because the petitioners failed to bring the case within the "scope of the maxim, he who seeks equity must do equity and come with clean hands." Dohl, 7 Pa. D. & C.2d at 313.

Here, this court can presume that Petitioner seeks relief in good faith but that does not mean that Petitioner is entitled to grant of the Petition. An application for the issuance of a marriage license is a public record by which the applicants verify information required to make certain there is "no legal objection to the marriage." 23 Pa.C.S. § 1307. See also 23 Pa.C.S. § 1301(a) (setting forth the general rule that "[n]o person shall be joined in marriage in this Commonwealth until a marriage license has been obtained."); 23 Pa.C.S. § 1302(a) ("No marriage license shall be issued except upon written and verified application made by both of the parties intending to marry."); 23 Pa.C.S. § 1302(b) (setting forth required information); 23 Pa.C.S. § 1309 (providing that applications for marriage are "docketed as public records."). The Application for Marriage License dated October 22, 1938 served its purpose and the records of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court accurately reflect the birthplace of Peter Wade that he supplied and affirmed on the Application for Marriage License. Similarly, the records of the Clerk of the Orphans' Court accurately reflect the spelling of Catherine McCloskey's name that she supplied and affirmed on the Application for Marriage License.

Petitioner does not challenge the official record as inaccurately reflecting the birthplace and spelling supplied and affirmed by his grandparents. Instead, Petitioner avers that other official documents reflect different information and Petitioner asks this court to alter historical records controlled by the Clerk of the Orphans' Court so that "documents proving [Petitioner's] lineage are harmonized so as to reflect the historical record as accurately as possible." Petition, 5/31/2023, ¶ 3. However, Petitioner has no right to harmonized historical documents any more than he has the right to alteration of someone else's marriage record. The court in In re Green ruled that the record "should be left in its present status, to be considered with other evidence in connection with any proceeding wherein the relationship of the petitioner and Membra Moore Green is to be determined." 4 Pa. D. & C.2d at 544. Similarly, this court rules that the record should be left in its present state to be considered with other evidence in any proceeding to prove Petitioner's lineage.

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth above this court will enter an order denying the Petition to Amend Marriage Record filed May 31, 2023.
