NEWSFOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*THE ARTHUR J. GLATFELTER INSTITUTE FOR PUBLIC POLICY RELEASES YORK COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION JUDICIAL CANDIDATE POLL RESULTS

[York, PA – May 7, 2021] The Arthur J. Glatfelter Institute for Public Policy at the York College of Pennsylvania conducted a poll of members of the York County Bar Association regarding the three candidates running for the two judicial vacancies on the Court of Common Pleas in York County. The 470 members of the York County Bar Association were given an opportunity to evaluate all candidates, with the evaluation of prospective candidates focused primarily on professional competence, judicial temperament, and integrity.

The judicial evaluation poll is a long-standing community service activity of the York County Bar Association. The poll was undertaken as a public service and not for the purpose of endorsing any specific candidate or any political party. It is not a popularity poll. The results are offered as a resource to the public in determining which candidates are most qualified serve as judges on the York County Court of Common Pleas.

In past polls, members of the York County Bar Association were asked to provide a single rating based on three categories for each of the candidates.

This year, the 2021 Judicial Candidate Poll asked members of the York County Bar Association to rate each candidate on specific qualities. Members rated each candidates as “Highly Qualified,” “Qualified,” “Not Presently Qualified,” or “No Opinion.”

A rating of “Highly Qualified” equates to 5 points. A ranking of “Qualified” equates to 3 points. A ranking of “Not Presently Qualified” equates to 1 point. A ranking of “No Opinion” equates to 0 points.

For a candidate to be rated as “Highly Qualified”, they must receive a minimum of 86 points. For a candidate to be rated “Qualified”, they must receive between 60-85 points. For a candidate to be rated as “Not Presently Qualified”, they must receive less than 60 points. The final ratings consist of the average of the total points received divided by the number of respondents.

The York County Bar Association and its members serve in the unique role of judicial officers in our community. For anyone who participates in any proceedings in the local legal system, whether as a party or a witness, and whether the case involves a civil, domestic, or criminal matter, nothing matters more than the opportunity to be heard before a fair, impartial, and qualified judge. The reputation our court system and its judges enjoy in the impartial administration of justice and application of the law contributes to the overall stability and security of the public and provides certainty, stability, and clarity to our personal and commercial relationships.

263 members participated in the poll. This equates to a 56% response rate. The results were tabulated and released on May 7, 2021. The results of the survey are as follows:
