PENNSYLVANIA
CRIMINAL DIVISION

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,	:

v.	:	: No. 2544 of 2019
	:	: No. 2545 of 2019
HAROLD EDDINGS,	:	: No. 2546 of 2019
Defendant.	:	: Honorable Judge Steve P. Leskinen

OPINION AND ORDER

Leskinen, J.

October 28, 2021

Before the Court is the Defendant's Motion in Limine. After careful review of the evidence and applicable case law, the Court hereby issues the following Opinion and Order:

Factual Background

A Hearing was held in this matter on October 14th, 2021. The Defendant is charged with numerous drug offenses. His case has been pending since October 4th, 2019. Extensive discovery was provided by the Commonwealth. The Court heard testimony that on September 7th, 2021, on the morning the case was scheduled for trial, the Commonwealth's counsel informed the Defense counsel that Trooper Matt Gavrish had just disclosed, for the first time, an allegedly inculpatory oral statement made by the Defendant. Trooper Gavrish testified that, following a preliminary hearing several years earlier in the Central Court building, he had allegedly heard the Defendant tell his family that, "They didn't have to worry about anything. He was taking it." Trooper Gavrish committed the statement to writing in a report two years later.

The Defendant seeks to exclude such statements, arguing "trial by ambush."

Legal Standard, Motion to Suppress Statements

Pa.R.Crim.P. Rule 573 states:

(B) Disclosure by the Commonwealth.

(1) Mandatory. In all court cases, on request by the defendant, and subject to any protective order which the Commonwealth might obtain under this rule, the Commonwealth shall disclose to the defendant's attorney all of the following requested items or information, provided they are material to the instant case. The Commonwealth shall, when applicable, permit the defendant's attorney to inspect and copy or photograph such items...

(b) any written confession or inculpatory statement, or the substance of any oral confession or inculpatory statement, and the identity of the person to whom the confession or inculpatory statement was made that is in the possession or control of the attorney for the Commonwealth;

(D) Continuing Duty to Disclose. If, prior to or during trial, either party discovers additional evidence or material previously requested or ordered to be disclosed by it, which is subject to discovery or inspection under this rule, or the identity of an additional witness or witnesses, such party shall promptly notify the opposing party or the court of the additional evidence, material, or witness.

(E) Remedy. If at any time during the course of the proceedings it is brought to the attention of the court that a party has failed to comply with this rule, the court may order such party to permit discovery or inspection, may grant a continuance, or may prohibit such party from introducing evidence not disclosed, other than testimony of the defendant, or it may enter such other order as it deems just under the circumstances.

The crux of the Brady rule is that due process is offended when the prosecution withholds material evidence favorable to the accused. Com. v. Wholaver, 177 A.3d 136, 158 (2018). "The purpose of the discovery rules is to permit the parties in a criminal matter to be prepared for trial. Trial by ambush is contrary to the spirit and letter of those rules and cannot be condoned." Com. v. Manchas, 633 A.2d 618, 625 (Pa.Super.1993), appeal denied. "When a party has failed to comply with Rule [573(8) (1)], the trial court has broad discretion in choosing an appropriate remedy." Id.

Discussion

The Court notes that the Pennsylvania Superior Court recently addressed a similar fact pattern in Com. v. Deng. In Com. v. Deng, the Commonwealth appealed the trial court's grant of a motion in limine made in response to the Commonwealth's disclosure (on the eve of trial) that two witnesses would testify about allegedly inculpatory admissions made by the defendant ten months earlier in an administrative proceeding:

[T]he Commonwealth did not inform the defense until 11:37 AM. on August 26, 2015 (the day before trial was set to begin), that the Commonwealth intended to offer testimony from...two witnesses regarding inculpatory statements Appellee had made in connection with the administrative proceeding, including Appellee's acceptance of responsibility... Under these circumstances, we will not disturb the court's decision to grant Appellee's motion in limine and preclude the Commonwealth from offering this testimony at trial.

Com. v. Deng, 1665 MDA 2015, 2016 WL 3364874, at *7 (Pa.Super.Ct.2016).

The Court finds that the instant fact pattern is substantially similar, and wishes not to condone shock tactics which, in the future, may otherwise become commonplace. The Court reiterates that, "Trial by ambush is contrary to the spirit and letter of those rules and cannot be condoned." Com. v. Manchas, 633 A.2d 618, 625 (Pa.Super.1993).

WHEREFORE, the Court issues the following Order:

ORDER

AND NOW, this 28th day of October, 2021, upon consideration of the Defendant's Motion in Limine, it is hereby ORDERED and DIRECTED that it is GRANTED. The Commonwealth is PRECLUDED from offering evidence at trial concerning any alleged inculpatory statements made by the Defendant not disclosed by the Commonwealth prior to September 7th, 2021 pursuant to Pa.R.Crim.P. Rule 573(E), which the Court incorporates herein by reference.
