JUDICIAL OPINION

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF FAYETTE COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
CRIMINAL DIVISION

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,	:
v.	:	No. 179 of 2024 and
SHAWN ANTIONE LARKINS,	:	1264 of 2025
DEFENDANT.	:	Honorable Steve P. Leskinen

ORDER OF COURT

Leskinen, P.J.

July 30, 2026

Before the Court is the Defendant's Motion for Re-Sentencing and to Withdraw Guilty Plea. On July 16, 2026, the Defendant entered a general plea to the charges in the above two cases: At 179 of 2024: Possession With Intent to Deliver fifty (50) grams of methamphetamines, Possession of a Controlled Substance, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, Conspiracy to Possession with Intent to Deliver and Conspiracy to Possession of Controlled Substance ; and at Case No. 1246 of 2025: Possession with Intent to Deliver twenty-three (23) grams of methamphetamines, Possession of a Controlled Substance and Resisting Arrest. The Defendant was to appear for sentencing on October 9, 2025, but failed to appear and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest. On May 18, 2026, after he was located, the Court at Case No. 179 of 2024 sentenced him to forty-two (42) to eighty-four (84) months incarceration. Then at Case No. 1264 of 2025, the Court sentenced him to twenty-four (24) to forty-eight (28) months incarceration concurrent with the sentence imposed at Case No. 179 of 2024.

In his motion, the Defendant claims that the Court abused its discretion and that his plea was not knowing, voluntary and intelligent. On July 16, 2026, at the hearing on the motion, the Defendant claimed that his attorney was ineffective for promising him a sentence of house arrest on the charges. The Defendant's claim contradicts his statements to the Court at the time of his sentencing.

DISCUSSION

In his motion, the Defendant requests to withdraw his general plea in the above listed cases asserting that the Court abused its discretion and that his plea was not knowing, voluntary, and intelligent. On July 16, 2026, at the hearing on the motion to withdraw his plea, the Defendant also claimed that his counsel told him he would get a sentence of house arrest. Counsel denied this and the plea colloquy contradicts this also.

During the plea, the Court reviewed with Adult Probation the appropriate sentence ranges that were relevant to sentencing the Defendant on these cases. The Court sentenced the Defendant in the standard range on each case and ran the cases concurrently. There is no abuse of discretion apparent in this case.

To withdraw a guilty plea after sentence has been imposed, the Defendant must demonstrate that manifest injustice would result from the denial of the motion. Commonwealth v. Broaden, 980 A.2d 124 (Pa. Super. 2009). Manifest injustice may be established if the plea was not tendered knowingly, intelligently and voluntarily. Commonwealth v. Baez, 169 A.3d 35 (Pa. Super. 2017) and Commonwealth v. Love 287 A.3d 835 (Pa. Super. 2022). Before ruling on a request to withdraw a plea, the Court must examine the totality of the circumstances surrounding the plea and the decision whether to permit a defendant to withdraw his guilty plea is within the sound discretion of the trial court. Id. At the hearing on the motion to withdraw his plea, the Defendant asserted that his counsel promised him house arrest.

Prior to entering his sentence, the Defendant submitted a written plea petition which he completed with his attorney. (N.T. Plea Proceedings of 7/7/25 at pg. 4). During his plea, the Court completed a comprehensive oral colloquy on the record. The Defendant indicated that he understood the nature of the charges against him and the facts that supported the charges. (N.T. at pgs. 14-16). The Court reviewed the sentencing possibilities that the Defendant faced and informed the Defendant that all sentencing options were open for the court to consider. The Court acknowledged that while he understood that the Defendant wanted a lenient sentence, the Courts generally follow the guidelines which placed his sentence in the range for incarceration in a state prison. (N.T. at Plea on 7/7/26 at pg. 13). The Court informed him that the "Probable consequences are state prison." Id. When asked if he understood this, his response was "yes, sir." (N.T. at pg. 14). The Court questioned him a second time as to whether he wanted to enter a plea and his response was again that he did. Id. The Defendant agreed that he believed the pleas were in his best interest. (N.T. at pg. 16). There was no indication at the guilty plea hearing that the Defendant had been promised a house arrest sentence. After the Court's explanation and indication that his sentence would probably be for incarceration in a state correctional facility, the Petitioner confirmed that he still wanted to move forward with his guilty plea. (N.T. at 15-16). To be completely fair, the Court also discussed the fact that the Court had discretion and could depart below the Guidelines, and could even sentence the Defendant to a County House Arrest sentence if that appeared to be appropriate at the time of sentencing. Defendant's counsel had represented to the Court that the Defendant had committed his crimes as a result of his own addiction, but that he had undergone treatment and was doing well at the time the plea was entered. The Court continued the sentencing so that a presentence report could be prepared by the Adult Probation Office and the Specialty Courts Coordinator, with the understanding that they might recommend a County sentence with house arrest and treatment court if the Defendant was an appropriate candidate and he was actually doing well with treatment.

The original sentencing was scheduled for October 9th of 2025, but the Defendant deliberately chose not to appear, and his attendance at sentencing had to be enforced by the issuance of a Bench Warrant. Prior to his sentencing on May 18th of 2026, the Defendant did not declare any dissatisfaction with his counsel or request to withdraw his general plea. However, the fact that the Defendant deliberately chose not to appear on his original sentencing date, and that he remained "on the run" for seven months, convinced the undersigned that he would not benefit from a sentence to house arrest and treatment court, and that he did not deserve such treatment. That is not to suggest that he would have been given that lenient rehabilitative sentence had he appeared as scheduled, but, instead, that his deliberate choice not to appear when scheduled caused the undersigned to not even consider such a sentence. The Commonwealth could have objected to such a sentence in any event, since it would have been a departure below the Guidelines, and had the Court imposed that sentence this appeal would probably have been filed by the Commonwealth.

In consideration of the foregoing, this Court concludes that the Defendant's plea was knowing, intelligent and voluntary when he entered it. The Defendant has not shown that he suffered prejudice on the order of manifest injustice as required for the withdrawal of his plea after his sentencing. Therefore, as the Defendant has failed to demonstrate that a manifest injustice occurred; the Court DENIES the Defendant's Motion to Withdraw his Plea.
