NOTICE TO CREDITORS OF
THE DISSOLUTION OF DONOMA DEVELOPMENT COMPANY, LLC

You are hereby notified that Donoma Development Company, LLC, a limited liability company created under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (the "Company"), has filed a Certificate of Dissolution. The Company has ceased conducting business and has collected its assets, has paid or made provision for payment of its obligations and liabilities, and has distributed its remaining assets to its members.

All persons having claims against the Company (except those who have received notification of the Company's dissolution by mail) should mail their claims to the Company at 100 Sterling Parkway, Suite G19, Mechanicsburg, PA 17050. Claims must contain the following information:

- (1) The name and mailing address of the claimant;
- (2) The amount of the claim, including any finance charges or interest that is accruing; and
- (3) An explanation of the circumstances under which the claim arose sufficient to apprise the Company of the nature of the claim and determine the extent to which it is liable for payment.

Claims should be submitted even if the amount has not been finally determined or existence of the claim is in doubt.

All claims should be submitted within two (2) years from the date of this notice. Unless paid by the Company, all claims against the Company will be barred unless the claimant initiates a proceeding to enforce the claim within two (2) years from the date of this notice. (Claims against the Company of persons who have received written notice of the Company's dissolution will be barred at an earlier date as provided in that notice.)

Pursuant to the Pennsylvania Uniform Limited Liability Company Act of 2016, this notice is being published one time in two newspapers of general circulation in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, the county in which the Company's registered office is located.
