Interested in serving on a government board?

The ACBA, through its codified role as an independent community nominating partner, is calling for resumes of interested volunteers to serve on the City of Pittsburgh

Ethics Hearing Board

Successful candidates will hold a reputation of personal integrity and honesty, be a Pittsburgh resident and be available to commit to a three-year term. The Ethics Hearing Board is an independent adjudicative agency. The Board, through the assistance of staff, administers advice and enforcement in the areas of conflicts of interest, gifts, contracting and campaign finance.

The Ethics Hearing Board meets the first Thursday of the month from 4-5 p.m. in the historic City-County Building. The average time commitment, including committee work, averages one to two hours per month. Applications are accepted on an ongoing basis.

To be considered for a current vacancy, please email your resume and expression of interest to leanne.davis@pittsburghpa.gov by August 31, 2026.
