Obiter Dictum

From the ABA Journal Daily Newsletter:

[1] The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit has ruled that the U.S. Department of Justice cannot impose new restrictions that will stop grant money from reaching sanctuary cities and keep intact an injunction extending its reach nationwide. The decision conflicts with a decision issued by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.; [2] According to the Florida Board of Bar Examiners, the Florida bar exam will take place in July. Masks will be required for test-takers, proctors and administrators, and people coming in and out of state for the exam might need to quarantine for 14 days or some other time period prior to the exam being administered. Test-takers will also be required to sit at least six feet apart in all directions and officials from the Florida Department of Health will be available to take temperatures barring entrance to anyone having a temperature of 100.4 degrees or higher.; [3] A county magistrate in West Virginia has been suspended for 90 days without pay and was ordered to pay a fine of $2,000 for a “flagrant attempt to intimidate” officers issuing a citation for exceeding the limit on trout fishing.; [4] The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit refused to delay the transfer of more than 800 medically vulnerable inmates amid a corona-virus outbreak at the Elkton Federal Prison. The prison has a dorm-style structure that makes it impossible to implement social distancing and seven inmates have died at the facility.; [5] The U.S. Supreme Court has refused to block enforcement of Pennsylvania Governor Wolf’s executive order of March 19th that shuts down businesses if they are not “life-sustaining.”; [6] A federal district judge in Massachusetts has ordered the opening of gun stores in the state following a challenge to the Governor’s shutdown of nonessential businesses on Second Amendment grounds. According to the opinion “We don’t surrender our constitutional rights” and “these plaintiffs have constitutional rights that deserve respect and vindication, and it becomes necessary for a court to do that rather than the executive when the executive declines.” ; [6] Legal employment is way down amid law firm layoffs and furloughs during the COVID-19 pandemic. The legal services sector lost 64,000 jobs in April, according to seasonally adjusted numbers by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.; [7] A federal district judge in Kentucky held that Kentucky’s restrictions on out-of-state travel as unconstitutional. The travel ban restricted travel outside the state only for limited reasons such as a job, health care or groceries or to provide care for the elderly and other categories of people.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
OF WASHINGTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

CIVIL DIVISION

IN RE: 27TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
DECLARATIOAN OF JUDICIAL EMERGENCY

Nos. 2020-1
24 W.M. 2020

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER

AND NOW, this 29th day of May, 2020, the Court declared a judicial emergency in the 27th Judicial District of Pennsylvania, effective March 16, 2020, and acknowledges the expiration of all previous Judicial Emergency Administrative Orders at the above-captioned docket numbers, effective June 1, and due to the continuing COVID-19 pandemic, the Court AUTHORIZES a renewed, limited declaration of emergency to safeguard the health and safety of court personnel, court users, and members of the public through the exercise of emergency powers under Pennsylvania Rule of Judicial Administration 1952(B)(2).

The Court finds that the entry of this Administrative Order is necessary because Washington County is still in the “Yellow Phase” of Governor Wolf’s plan for “relief, reopening, and recovery” due to the ongoing public health concerns related to the COVID-19 pandemic. As Washington County moves into the “Green Phase” the Court will revise and refine its emergency procedures as appropriate, while being mindful that the vast majority of individuals that use our judicial facilities are compelled to do so. Accordingly, the 27th Judicial District will continue to implement and follow, to the extent possible, the guidelines for the COVID-19 pandemic as issued by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and the Pennsylvania Department of Health.

It is hereby ORDERED that the Court of Common Pleas and all Magisterial District Courts shall generally be open to the public for official business, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

1. All judicial officers shall perform their duties in the following matter
  - A. Utilize advanced communications technology, when practicable, to reduce in-person appearances for proceedings;
  - B. Stagger court appearances;
  - C. Limit meetings, conferences, and other gatherings to essential participants; and/or
  - D. Liberally grant requests for continuances
2. Common Pleas Judges shall coordinate the scheduling of high-volume dockets (e.g., criminal plea days, protection from abuse proceedings, etc.) with the Court Administrator’s office. Arrangements will be made to hold proceedings in an appropriate sized courtroom.
3. Statewide rules that restrict, directly or indirectly, the use of advanced communication technologies are SUSPENDED for the duration of the judicial emergency. Proceedings involving incarcerated individuals will be scheduled via videoconference to avoid transportation by a deputy sheriff or constable. If the individual has a statutory or constitutional right to appear in person, and does not consent to a video appearance, then the matter will be continued and rescheduled by the judicial officer.

4. All individuals entering a judicial facility SHALL comply with the following, or be denied access and/or removed:
  - a. Submit to a temperature check and screening. No individual may enter a judicial facility with a fever of over 100.0°, or if exposure to or symptoms of COVID-19 are indicated;
  - b. Wear an appropriate mask or face covering that fits snugly around the face and leaves unexposed the nose and mouth of the individual, unless the individual has a documented medical condition or is 3 years of age or younger. It is specifically directed that staff shall wear a mask or face covering in all common areas, if interacting with a member of the public, or in situations where social distancing is not possible. A presiding judicial officer may permit an individual to remove a mask to take testimony or where the presence of a mask would affect the ability to judge credibility, provided that the requirements for social distancing are followed; and
  - c. Comply with social distancing guidelines, as well as any signage posted in or on judicial facilities or instructions from a judge, judicial officer, the district court administrator, deputy sheriff, constable at a magisterial district court, or court employee. Elected officials of court-related offices are responsible for establishing and maintaining procedures within their respective offices.
5. Regular Motions Court practice shall continue to be suspended and remote procedures shall remain in effect until further order of court. The temporary Motions Court procedures for the respective common pleas judges are set forth at www.washingtoncourts.us.
6. Magisterial District Courts are specifically authorized to:
  - a. Modify their hours of operation, including times when in-person payments and filings may be accepted in order to permit for screening of the public; provided however, that any modification may be submitted to the District Court Administrator for approval by the President Judge. A notice of any modification of hours shall be posted on the door of the affected magisterial district court and displayed at www.washingtoncourts.us.
  - b. Use a constable to provide security and conduct COVID-19 screening. It is preferred, but not necessary, that the constable be certified to carry a firearm by the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency.
7. Quasi-judicial officers shall conduct hearings and conferences, whenever practicable, using advanced communications technology.
8. The Sheriff of Washington County, or his designee, is authorized to enforce this order.
9. The District Court Administrator is directed to post a copy of this Order on all entry doors of the Washington County Courthouse and all magisterial district courts, and to post a copy of the Court's website at www.washingtoncourts.us. A copy of this Order shall also be transmitted to the Washington County Bar Association for distribution to its members.

BY THE COURT:

/s/ PRESIDENT JUDGE KATHERINE B. EMERY

LAWYERS CONCERNED FOR LAWYERS

PENNSYLVANIA

---

Are you overwhelmed by the stress of law practice or struggling with anxiety, grief, or symptoms of depression? Perhaps you are concerned about your increased use of medication (or other drugs) or alcohol to ‘take the edge off’? You are not alone.

LCL can help. Your call and all LCL Helpline services are 100% confidential.

Approximately one in four Pennsylvania lawyers will struggle with a significant mental health or substance use (i.e. problematic alcohol or other drug use) condition during his or her career. Many of these conditions are chronic and progressive – they do not resolve on their own. They often lead to worsening health, strained relationships, and/or diminished professional competence. It is imperative for an attorney to receive the help he or she needs in order to mitigate these consequences and restore him or her to health and personal and professional well-being.
